News of People and Events.

Happenings Briefly and Reliably Put Before You.

New Uniforms.

The new uniforms for the police force, consisting of full suits and overcoats, arrived yesterday. The helmets will arrive in a few days.

A New Gate.

J. E. Gibbs, of Bridgewater, is in the city exhibiting the J. C. Long gate, which is quite an improvement over anything yet seen in the way of a farm gate. It is located near the city market.

Funeral Yesterday.

The funeral of Mrs. M. A. Hall took place from her late residence on Fifth avenue n. w. on yesterday afternoon. Rev. E. B. Pollard conducted the services, and the interment was at Fairview Cemetery.

In the Police Court.

In the police court yesterday morning Judge Williams fined Mose Griffin and Lon Smith, Cliff Sherman and Vic Stuart, all colored, $5 each for violating a city ordinance. One drunk was assessed $2.50. Three other unimportant cases were dismissed.

Will Reside in Roanoke.

William Beury, one of the lessees of the West End furnace, is in the city, accompanied by his family. Mr. Beury has purchased the B. L. Griener residence on Ninth avenue s. w. and will remove there as soon as he can get possession, to reside permanently.

Somewhat Injured.

Owing to the condition of the sidewalk between Sixth and Seventh streets on Salem avenue it is dangerous for pedestrians to walk on them. One lady has been known to fall as many as two times in the same place on this walk and the last time was crippled.

Will Locate Here.

R. A. Lloyd, of Straitsville, Ohio, is in the city visiting his brother, Eddie Lloyd, late pitcher for the Roanoke baseball team. The Lloyd brothers will in a few days open a barber shop on Campbell avenue in the room lately occupied by Ellis Bros., real estate and rental agents.

Dr. Barron to be Here.

Rev. Dr. A. C. Barron, the successful evangelist, who labors with Dr. A. M. Wharton, of Baltimore, has written that he will be here on next Sunday to begin a series of meetings at the First Baptist Church. Mr. P. W. Bush and wife, the sweet singers, who accompany Doctors Wharton and Barron, will also be here. Prof. Bush will organize a choir of fifty voices to assist in the meetings.

Over the Bank.

Yesterday morning a countryman, who was a little the worse off for the apple brandy which he had imbibed too freely, came into the city driving a blind horse to a wagon. When near the end of the Randolph street bridge he drove his horse over the bank and man, horse and wagon all landed in the mire of Lick run. The wagon was overturned and the man was caught under it, who seemed to have the worst of the episode. A large number of people ran to his assistance and soon the man and horse were on their feet and the wagon on its wheels, all very muddy and in a sorry plight to aid in the celebration proper which came off later in the day.

Captured the Bridle.

Friday night C. E. Sowder, who runs a boarding house at 1118 First avenue n. w., saw someone driving his cow. He awaited developments and saw the man drive her into his stable, when he alarmed the boarders and they undertook to capture the would-be thief. They found him in the act of putting a bridle on the cow and as they entered the stable he jumped through a window and made his escape. He was a negro and in trying to make his escape lost his bridle, which was captured by Mr. Sowder. Several cows have been lost recently in the northwest section.

Death of Captain Garretson.

Capt. Henry Garretson, a freight conductor on the Shenandoah railroad, was killed at Buena Vista Friday. He was climbing on his car while the train was passing the station and was knocked off by the depot shed. He was so badly injured that he died at 3:20 p. m. The accident occurred at 12 o'clock. A special train was sent from this city for the remains, which were brought here for interment. His home was in the city, and he leaves a wife and one child. The funeral arrangements have not yet been announced. The deceased was 33 years of age and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was especially popular among his brother railroad men and was a member of the Order of Railway Conductors.

A Requisition Necessary.

Eugene Robinson, a deputy sheriff of Mercer county, W. Va., arrived in Roanoke to-day for the purpose of arresting and conveying to said county Sheridan Muse, colored, of this city, who is charged with having recently committed a murder at Elk Horn, in that county. Muse was lately incarcerated in jail upon a normal charge of vagrancy in anticipation of the arrival of the officer. Two sheriff came unarmed with requisition papers. The accused, by advice of his counsel, refused to return with the sheriff, and thereupon the officer swore out a warrant before the police justice charging him with the offense and will proceed to obtain a requisition from Governor McCorkle upon Governor O'Ferrall. Sheridan admits that he was recently in that section, but denies all knowledge of the crime. Judge A. J. Brand has been retained as his counsel.

Sergeant Tillett Serenaded.

The Park Street Band serenaded City Sergeant Tillett at his bird-nest home on Mountain avenue s. w. last night. Sheriff Tillett is a favorite with the people of the Fifth ward and especially so with the Park Street Band.

THE BEST OF THE SEASON.

Stuart Robson Monday Night at the Academy.

Daniel L. Hart's drama, "Government Acceptance," which Stuart Robson presents at the Academy of Music on to-morrow night, is well constructed, has no forced climaxes, runs evenly and fixes one's interest. The incidents are possible and the conclusions probable. The author realizing that the nearer one is to nature, the nearer one is to art, has made his play natural, his characters genuine. In them one recognizes people to be met within life's panoramic highways. Human nature is the same the world over and the play teams with nature's weaknesses and virtues. As the young Washingtonian, Mr. Robson has the character of his life. The play will be magnificently staged. Electricity is the main theme of the play. The "den" of the young inventor is shown. The exhibition of the man-o-war built for the Government is a stage picture which, for beauty, has never been equalled. The company has been selected with care. No entertainment of the year will furnish such excellence. Theatre-goers have a delight in store for them.

Only One Joe Ott.

To become a successful star is no small undertaking. Joe Ott, the comedian who made such a triumphal hit last season, may well feel proud of his first effort as a star, as it speaks untold praise for this clever young artist. Until a few years ago Mr. Ott was practically unknown, but since his initial appearance upon the stage, his onward march on the highway of success has been accomplished in double-quick time. In his unique conception of Prof. Jupiter Mars, in "The Star Gazer," Mr. Ott is again touring the country, and, as he is underlined to appear at the Academy of Music Tuesday, October 8, it will once more afford our theatre-goers a comedy event of unusual rarity.

Jules Grau Opera Company.

The society event of the season Thursday evening, October 10, when the popular Jules Grau Opera Company, will present on a grand scale the best of all comic operas, "Begger Student," with a star cast. The costumes will be the finest ever seen on the Roanoke stage. Notwithstanding the enormous expense of this company the management will not advance the prices. Manager Jules Grau guarantees to give one of the finest performances of opera ever given in Roanoke. The following celebrated artists will appear in the cast: Miss Adelaide Randall, Miss Amy Harvey, Miss Hattie Arnold, Miss Sayer, Herman Waldo, Fred H. Frear, Tom Martin, Arlie Arnold, J. Airish Libbey and a chorus of thirty-four voices. In addition to the opera Miss Randall, Mr. Frear and Mr. Libbey will introduce some popular songs. The sale of seats commences Tuesday, October 8.

THE CASE OF CAPTAIN ARMES.

Judge Bradley Will Render a Decision Next Thursday.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The case of Capt. A. Armes, retired, who was arrested some days ago by order of Lieutenant General Schofield, acting secretary of war, came up to-day before Judge Bradley, of the supreme court of the District of Columbia. Soon after his arrest the captain was released on a writ of habeas corpus made returnable to-day. When the case was called to-day counsel for General Schofield asked for permission to file a return amending the original return already filed.

This proposition was combatted by Armes' counsel, but the court decided to allow the amended return to be filed subject to whatever action he might see fit to take later in the case. In the course of the argument it was contended on behalf of Armes that as a retired officer of the army he was not under the jurisdiction of General Schofield as acting secretary of war.

After further argument the court adjourned without a conclusion having been reached by it, Judge Bradley announcing that it would take the case under advisement and would render his decision on Thursday next. Meanwhile Captain Armes is out on his personal recognizance to appear when wanted.

MASSACHUSETTS REPUBLICANS.

They Nominate a State Ticket and Adopt a Platform.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 5.—The Republican State convention to-day nominated Gov. Greenhalge for governor. The A. P. A. element cast 391 votes for Morse against 1,333 for Greenhalge. The latter's nomination was then made unanimous.

The full ticket follows: For governor, Fredrick T. Greenhalge; for lieutenant-governor, Roger Wolcott, of Boston; for secretary of state, Wm. M. Olin, of Boston; for treasurer, E. P. Shaw, of Newburyport; for auditor, J. W. Kimball, of Fitchburg; for attorney general, H. M. Knowlton, of New Bedford.

The platform pledges the party to protection for American industry, declares for sound and honest money and opposes free silver coinage at any ratio not established with any agreement. The Monroe doctrine should be maintained. Immigration should be restricted to the intelligent and self-supporting; prize fighting is denounced and laws to prevent it are demanded.

The Venezuelan Boundary Question.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—N. Gosch Burch, the Venezuelan consul here, in an interview to-day said there had been absolutely no new development in the boundary question in dispute between Great Britain and Venezuela since Dr. Pulido, the Venezuelan minister for foreign affairs, received Great Britain's decision in the matter some time ago. He thought, however, that Dr. Pulido's arrival in New York was probably connected with a mission, entrusted to him by the Venezuelan government, to make further representations to the United States government.

Money Saved.

LOSS OF VOICE

After Acute Bronchitis

CURED BY USING

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.

"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better. I found it very difficult to preach, and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. To all ministers suffering from throat troubles, I recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—E. M. BRAWLEY, D. D., Dist. Secretary, Am. Bapt. Publication Society, Petersburg, Va.
